ABSTRACT

Singing can be an enjoyable and effective way to motivate children to learn a second language. This booklet consists of contemporary and folk songs that are related to Chinese festivals, transportation, the family, seasons, Christmas and other topics. Each page gives the music to a song with the words in Chinese and in English. The songs are illustrated with black-and-white drawings. A cassette of the songs was developed to accompany this booklet. 青 春 舞 曲

"My Lovely Little Bird Flies Away"

新疆民歌

Translation:

The sun goes down and rises again,
Flowers die but every year new ones appear.

Lovely little bird flies far, far away,
My little bird flies away also,
There is no trace of my little bird.

Oh, Farewell now, Oh Farewell,
My little bird flies away, flies away.

* This is a famous Chinese folk song from Sinkiang Province. The words were originally written for Mandarin speakers.
